EVENTS

Lent Lectures

The Rt Revd Jonathan Meyrick, Bishop of Lynn, will deliver this year's lectures focusing on the theme "Incarnation and Community – through one man's eyes".

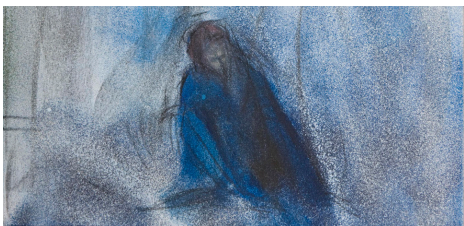

- 20 February - Being Led
- 27 February - Being Rooted
- 06 March - Church as Community
- 13 March - The Nature of Prayer

Lectures are free to attend and take place in the Cathedral at 7.30pm following a said Eucharist at 7.00pm.

Lent Lunches

Light lunches of soup with bread and cheese followed by tea or coffee will be served in the Weston Room between 12.30 and 1.30 pm on each Tuesday in Lent, starting 19 February.

These popular lunches are a great opportunity to meet with others and raise money for local charities. The lunches are free and donations welcomed.

Exhibition: Stations of the Cross - Forces of Creation
Wednesday 13 February - Monday 01 April

15 images, telling the familiar story of the betrayal, trial and suffering of Jesus, to be seen in two different and contrasting ways.

Ted Harrison, a former BBC Religious Affairs correspondent and Radio 4 presenter, explores the question that often provides a stumbling block on the journey of faith. How did a God of love come to create a world in which suffering inevitably occurs?

The exhibition takes place in the Hostry Visitor & Education Centre and is open Monday to Saturday 9.30am - 4.30pm and Sunday 11.00am - 3.00pm - Admission is free.

A lecture will be held in the Weston Room on Tuesday 19 February at 7.30pm to accompany the exhibition. Admission is free.
